important a part in commencement week at the Point

resence of the mothers. They make much of them at West Point, and they participate even in the hops. The real mamentation, of course, was the girls, he regiments or brigades of them there early looking not a shade the worse for the ball of the night before or the other eremonies of the seven days. They of urse looked sad at the passing of the id first class, but somehow or other they eemed to find solace in the old second he first class to be, and those young semed to know as much about the grious points of interest on the reservar-Gen. Barry and his guests were on the platform when they ar-George W. Goethals, the tired, but they all want it to be that they defer to the Colonel if attitude at this time. the platform at the same time were Pennsylvania, who was fourth.

but owing to an emergency, which not mentioned, he could not leave shington. Secretary of War Stimp-was also unable to be present, but telegrams of congratulation Academy and in after life. And her boy the General took pleasure oducing as the engineer of the world.

All that great work, my friends, "eneral continued, "it is true that ger of scandal has never touched yer will touch the administration Goethals, and let me add it will ouch any work which this country. ouch any work which this country to its army. Whereat naturally as an approving hi-hi, the clao-ry hour he had sat in the seat the discipline as they were,

if the problems confronting a soldier are more complete in the old days, yet now, a nan must depend upon himself. of the Academy, "Duty, Honor," was just as strong in itsappeal s ever. A man must be just as he always was, loyal to his est in us toward the accomonel said that while the Acadarchæology. Miss Randolph has been connected with the college for twenty rid demands results, he told demands results, he told the related a little incident assistant, was appointed to Miss Randamian who gave good reasons dolph's chair.

The degree of A. B. was conferred e careful and not permit any-

WEST POINT GODSPEEDS

96 NEW ARMY OFFICERS

when Gen. Barry comes down to take charge of the Department of the East he will blossom into an after dinner speaker if he does not watch out. The way in which he delivered the diplomas to-day showed that he has the makings. He had the class and its friends laughing and blushing in no time after he had started to cut the last strings that held the youngsters to him and the audience came back with a continuous round of kind applause.

ENERCISES UNDER ELMS

Were marvels.

The corps is to lose a class which a class which a control of the came to athletics they were marvels.

The corps is to lose a class which a class which a class which a class which a continuous round of kind applause.

The corps is to lose a class which a class which a class which a class which a control of the came to athletics they were marvels.

miss her parasol.

a means that many new second lieutenants in the various arms of the service in about six weeks, while as for Hernando Ulloa of Costa Rica the predictions have been made that he may start in as General at least.

In the two years of his superintendency Major-General Thomas H. Berry has shown a disposition to do original things in a new way, and he indicated this to-day is selecting the comfortable shade of the selecting the selecting the comfortable shade of the selecting that that. Mrs. Harrison, it seems, became excited at the navy baseball game in which her son, just relieved from the Area, covered himself with glory. When he caught a fly out in left field, fell backward, rolled over and came up with the ball, she brought her parasol. There was a yell at that. Mrs. Harrison, it seems, became excited at the navy baseball game in which her son, just relieved from the Area, covered himself with glory. When he caught a fly out in left field, fell backward, rolled over and came up with the ball, she brought her parasol.

tinued, "you won the 1911 and 1912 indoor championships and the 1910, 1911 and 1912 outdoor championships. In fencing we will miss Rayner, Anderson, Hineman and Wilbur."

and Wilbur.

He mentioned a few incidents of the class career which made some of the young men blush. He referred to the Area, which is the quadrangle where bad little cadets must walk extra punishment tours while their comrades are out enjoying themselves. He spoke of the "Mile-O-Mo" Battery, which referred to a time last camp when some overactive young men got caught wheeling a gun

Pennsylvania who was second.

if they want to who was fifth.

These young men will go into the engineer corps and build canals themselves

But the stars did not get all the applause by any means. A great many of those clushing young men got a hearty hand because of athletic prowess or something because of athletic prowess or something which distinguished them from their fellows. Faymonville, a great organizer of hops, had a reception: Basil Duke Edwards, No. 33, got a cheer with calls for a "speech." This is because Lieut, Edwards is a talker.

here won't be so many four years from

Cadet William H. G. Youngs of the First

New York district, who was graduated No. 15 in his class, at the conclusion of the ceremonies hurried himself into civiliar clothes and took the first train for Passaic, N. J., to be married to Miss

MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE.

Dean Brown of Yale Preaches Bac-calaurente Sermon.

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., June 12 .- The seventy-fifth annual commencement of Mount Holyoke College was observed today. There was the usual academic procession of members of the board trustees, faculty, seniors and vested thoir to the Mary Lyon chapel, where the Rev. Charles Reynolds Brown, dean of the

During the exercises the announcement was made of the retirement of Miss Louise been pledged to the general endowment fund, leaving $57,259 still to be raised Among the New York students to re-ceive degrees were Helen V. Bennett, Lois K. Curtice, Florence L. Murdock, Helen McBride.

FOR 48 NEW SCHOOLS

Board of Education Has Big Pro-

KEEPS SUPERINTENDENTS

Two High Schools for Boys Are to Be Tried Out This Summer.

The Board of Education decided yesterday to ask the Board of Estimate for $16,277,481 to carry out a building programme that has been planned. This is the programme: Eight new buildings for Manhattan, twelve for The Bronx, twelve for Brooklyn, seven for Bronx, twelve for Brooklyn, seven for Queens and four for Richmond—in all until enfeebled by an attack of pulmonary 1.138 new classrooms. The estimated congestion in January of this year. Queens and four for Richmond-in all cost of the construction and equipment is

In addition to these new schools the building committee proposed a training school, three new high schools, a trade school, additions to seven high schools and additional cottages for the parental school in Queens. These are to cost

Miss Draper objected to tearing down an old public school on West Twentieth street to make way for a new one. She said it was not needed. Supt. Maxwell said that it was a waste of money to put up a big public school in that neighborhood, as the school population had been decreasing for some time.

Chairman McGowan of the building committee said that a new school was badly needed there, as a factory was directly in the rear of the present school William Ennis, U. S. A., retired, Capt.

NOBEL PRIZE WINNER DIES.

Frederic Passy, Noted Peace Advocate, Passes Away in Paris.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PARIS, June 12.—Frederic Passy, the French economist and peace advocate, first winner of the Nobel peace prize, died at his home here to-day. He was 90 years old on May 20.

Frederic Passy was one of the founders and was general secretary of the International and Permanent League of Peace, organized in 1867. With M. W. Randal-Cremer he founded in 1888 the Interparliamentary Union for Arbitration and Peace. mentary Union for Arbitration and Peace. He was a member of the international Bureau of Peace at Bern, Switzerland. He received the Nobel peace prize in 1901.

M. Passy was born in Paris and always lived there. Educated as a lawyer, he entered the Government service as auditor of the Council of State. From 1881 to 1889 he was a member of the Chamber of Deputies. At the same time, and luntil he retired in 1902 he was professor of political economy in several colleges. He was a commander of the Legion of Honor and a member of the moral and political science. member of the moral and political science academy of the French Institute. He wrote several books on economics and philosophy and also a volume of verse.

REAR ADMIRAL EVERETT.

Army and Navy Officers Attend Fun-

New Out, R. I., June 12.—There was a large number of army and navy officers at Channing Memorial Church this after-noon for the funeral of Rear Admiral William noon for the funeral of Rear Admiral William Henry Everett, U. S. N., retired. The service was conducted by the Rev. William Safford Jones.

Safford Jones.

The naval flags at half staff and a salute of thirteen minute guns was fired from the training ship Reina Mercedes as the cortège left the church. Three battations of aptrain on which the body started for Washington for interment at Arlington.

The bearers were Rear Admiral F. E.

MISS THORNE MARRIED TO EDWARD H. CARLE

Bishop Greer Officiates in St. Bartholomew's in the Reception for the Large Number of Guests at Home of Bride's Parents.

Miss Margaret H. Thorne, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakleigh Thorne, was married to Edward H. Carle. son of John J. Carle, yesterday afternoon in St. Bartholomew's Church. Bishop David H. Greer performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Sydney Ussher, curate of St. Bartholomew's. There was a full choral service by the vested choir of Calvary Church.

It was one of the most picturesque weddings of the summer. All along the pews of the main aisle were large clusters of lilies of the valley while on the altawere masses of white peonies, the sides of the chancel being flanked with lofty Dunham of All Saints' Church, Orange.

court train. Her veil of old point appliqué and point d'Angleterre lace fell almost to the end of the train. It had been worn by her grandmother when a bride. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Birdseye B. Lewis, sister of the bride, wore an Empire gown of pale mative chiffon over satin of the same shade, the skirt being finished with garlands of made pink satin roses. Her hat of tan colored Leghorn was covered with pink tulle and she carried a fan of mauve chiffon to which were attached streamers of pink ribbons and pink sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Anita Thorne, a cousin of the bride; Adeline Townsend, Ursula Brown and Alleen Osborn, were all dressed alike in Empire of Daborn, were all dressed alike in Empire of Hull, yesterday morning that the Rev. P. J.

The Rev. P. J.

Mrs. Charles the Miss A. Hedges Crowell Mrs. Mary Mord Mrs. Charles the Daborn of Hull, were the Misses Helen Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. A welding Mrs. Charles the Daborn Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. A welding Mrs. Charles the Daborn Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. A welding Mrs. Charles the Daborn Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. A welding Mrs. Charles the Daborn Mrs. All the Brown Mrs. A welding Mrs. Charles the Daborn Mrs. All the satin of the same shade, the skirt being gowns of pale rose colored chiffon and satin with touches of mauve chiffon. Their hats of Leghorn were covered with nauve tulle and like the matron of honor they carried fans. All the attendants wore small enamelled and jewelled watches, gifts of the bride.

G. Owen Winston acted as best man party, wore a gown of embroiderecteream white chiffon and a hat of white lace topped with yellow paradise plames. The house was decorated throughout with white peonies and lifes of the valley. The bridegroom is master of the Dutchess County Hunt and there were present at the church and also at the reception many men who are prominent in the hunting world.

Among those invited were:

Rogers, Pay Direct r Leeds C Kerr and Thorne Philbin

OBITUARY.

Robert Donaldson Bronson.

Robert Donaldson Bronson.

Robert Donaldson Bronson.

Robert Summit, N. J. He was the son of Dr. Cliver Bronson of Hudson, N. Y. For the past thirty.

North And Mrs. Jonathan Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Philbin

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Missingene Philbin

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Missingene Philbin

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Missingene Philbin

Mr. and Mrs. James B.

Mr. and Mrs. Jame

Miss Townsens.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur
Carroll
Mr. and Mrs. George S.
Mr. and Mrs. George S.
Mr. and Mrs. John Mr. And Mrs. Edwin S.
Cramp
Mr. Ashegren
Mr. Ashegren
Mr. And Mrs. J. E. Smith Hadden
Mr. and Mrs. Hichard
Mr. and Mrs. Richard
Mr. and Mrs. Richard
Newton, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. George F.
Mr. and Mrs. Cornellus
Mr. and Mrs. W. Eugene
Parsons
Mr. and Mrs. Susanne Lee, Gaughter of the late Col.
Miss Susanne Lee, Gaughter of the late Col.
T. H. Lee, will be married to Alexander T. Mason
In St. Bartholomew's Church on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Indey Blair returned from Mr. and Mrs. J. TuckerMr. and Mrs. J. Auerbach on June 22, will give his
Mr. and Mrs. George R.
Mr. and Mrs. George R.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Auerbach on June 22, will give his man Tower
Miss Tower
Mrs. George F. Shrady

Mr. and Mrs. Carle left after the re-ception for Milbrook, N. Y., where the bride's father has a fine country estate Thorndale. One of the wedding gifts from the bride's father was a house in Milbrook, where Mr. and Mrs. Carle will

WEDDINGS. Hoff-Richle.

Miss Clarisse M. Riehle, daughter of Mr. John J. Hoff last evening in St. James's snyder officiating. Mrs. Oscar Hermann was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Clara Cimiotti, Elsie Santler, Mollie Quinn and Ottilie Riehle, a sister of the bride. Frederick Hoffmann acted as best man. The ushers were Theodore M. Richle, Charles Hoeninger, Eugene Gurnholz and Paul Levy.

charmeuse trimmed with duchess and rose point lace. Her veil of tulle was held by a wreath of natural orange blossoms. The matron of honor wore a pale blue chiffon pannier gown, the bridesmaids wearing similar costumes of coral pink chiffon and

There were two little flower girls, Clara white lingerie costumes, carrying baskets of sweet peas.

A reception followed at the Plaza, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hoff left for a trip to the Yellowstone Park.

Abbott-Jaffray. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

Paris, June 12. - Walter Abbott of Boston and Helen Frances Jaffray, daughter of the late William Jaffray of New York, were married at the Church of the Holy Trinity at noon to-day. Lord Fairfax of Cameron was best man and Miss Elizabeth Pelton was the maid of honor. Capt. E. W. Jaf-fray, brother of the bride, gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Bis hop Jegger and the Rev. Dr. Henry. The church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers.

Feeney-White. Miss Rosemary White, daughter of Mrs. Thomas F. White of 34 Riverside Drive, was married yesterday morning to Andrew C. Feeney of Manhattan. The Andrew C. Feeney of Manhattan. The wedding took place at Mrs. White's summer home in Cedarhurst, L. I. The ceremony was performed at the Roman Catholic Church of St. Joachim, and the Right Rev. Charles E. McDonnell, Bishop of Brooklyn, acted. The mass after the ceremony was celebrated by the Rev. Patrick McKenna, rector of the church. The Misses Grace and Gertrude White were bridesmaids and Joseph Ridder was best man. The bride wore a white satin dress with rose point lace and her maids wore chiffon trimmed with blue. The 300 guests from Brooklyn and Manhattan were taken to Cedarhurst on special trains. The breakfast was served on the lawn of the Whites' home. The honey moon will be spent in motoring through the Berkshires. Federation Special Loads 100

Hoyt-Meyers.

MANY FLOWERS USED Society, married this afternoon Miss A Jeanette Meyers, daughter of Charles Meyers of New York and Hempstead. A special train brought many guests from Entertainments En Route—A Manhatten and Brooklyn and after the wedding they returned on the same train, following a reception at the Meyers home. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Mottet, paster of Holy Com-munion Church in Manhattan. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Meyers, sis-ter of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, sister of the bridegroom. Sherman Hoyt, brother of the bridegroom was best man. The ushers were Arthur Meyers, Nathan R. Reid, John A. Dix, Stephen W. Nathan, Stanton Whitney, Percy S.

Miss Irana Farrar Gibbs, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Franklin Trowbridge Ray, was married to John J. Birtwistle of Providence, R. L. yesterday at noon in Trinity Chapel. The Rev. Fr. Dunham of All Saints' Church, Orange. N. J., officiated. The bride entered the church with her stepfather, who gave her away. She wore a gown of white sating and lace, carrying a cluster of white sweet peas. Her tuile veil was held by a wreath of the same flowers.

The only attendant was little Marian Leworthy. Dr. L. T. Griffith acted as best man. There was no reception. Mr. and Mrs. Birtwistle left after the ceremony for their bunnalow on Naragansett Bay, where they formed groups and posed for the photographers. J. P. McCann had charge of the trip. The oldest delegate was Mrs. William Todd Helmuth, honorary president of the State federation, who will celebrate her seventy-fourth birthday next Monday at Riverside, Cal. A big fruit cake for that occasion was taken along by Mrs. J. F. Yawger.

For the first time sustrage will be represented at the recetting of the federation and the suffrage delegate is Miss Mary Wood of the Equal Franchise Society. Many sister suffragists waved her good-by.

for their bungalow on Naragansett Bay, near Providence, R. L.

Ughetta-Brinkmann.

Miss Marie Rose Brinkmann, daughte of Mr. and Mrs. Maximilian Brinkmann of Mr. and Mrs. Maximilian Brinkmann of Hackensack. N. J., was married to be thing for Mrs. Percy Pennypacker of that Scate. The delegates yesterday inett and Alfred Bartagni. A wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Astor.

G. Owen Winston acted as best man. The ushers were Robert W. Carle, brother of the bridegroom; Birdseye B. Lewis, Malcolm Stevenson, Fletcher Harper, F. Skiddy von Stade and F. Ambross Clark.

After the marriage ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 299 Madison avenue. Mrs. Thorne, who received with the bridal party, wore a gown of embroidered cream white chiffon and a hat of white lace topped with yellow paradise planes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst entertained at dinner lost night at their home, 137 Riverside Drive, in honer of Francisco Madero, father of the President of the Mexican republic. Jules Madero and Evaristo Madero, brothers of the President as well as Salvador Madero, his uncle, were also among the guests, as well as the following ladies and guestismer. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCharen, Judge and Mrs. Young, Mrs. John H. Flegler, Mrs. Joseph I limatin, Mrs. Arthur Hearn, Mrs. A. W. Tovey, Miss Conchita Septiveds, Miss Dorothy Stratton, Judge Gerard and Arthur Brisbane.

THE SEAGOERS.

Those Who Are Salling To-day for England and the Continent.

Sailing to-day by the Hamburg-Ameri-Salling to-day by the Hamburg-American liner Amerika for Hamburg are:
Prince Nicholas Enga,
Iltcheff Prince Stagalitcheff Prince Vladimir Enga
Iltcheff Prince Vladimir Enga
International Mrs. Rigar L.
Marston
Illcheff Prince Vladimir La. Savole for

Miss Susanne Lee, daughter of the late Col. T. H. Lee, will be married to Alexander T. Mason in St. Bartholomew's Church on Saturday.

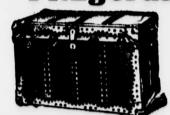

farewell backelor dinner to-night at Deimonico's Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thierlot will sail to-day

Rear Admiral Cameron McR. Winslow and Mrs

Miss Harriet Sabin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs N. Henry Sabin, will be married to Henry Hop-kins, Jr., of this city in Williamstown, Mass., on,

Miss Mildred E. Varney will be married to Arthur D. Raiston of Minneapolis at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Marsh, in Bellerose, Long

Crouch & Fitzgerald

Dress Trunks, Rawhide Bound Lightweight—Durable

Trunks, Bags & Cases Shopping Bags 154 Fifth Avenue
N. W. Corner 20th Street
177 Breadway
Above Cortlandt Street

723 Sixih Avenue

Commercial Trunks

INFORMATION WANTED.

THE undersigned require information as to the whereabouts of one William John Carson, or his family, last heard of in New York City six years ago, said Cerson being a brother of Sarah Jane Barnes of 45 Maleking road, South Sea, Hants, England.

MIDDLEBRO & SPEREMAN, Barristers, etc.,
Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada,

THE undersigned require information as to the whereabouts of one Thomas Scholes and his family, last heard of in New York City, said Scholes being married to Catherine Carson, who died in 1860. MIDDLEBRO' & SPEREMAN, Barristera, etc. Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Delegates to National Convention.

FEW MEN GO ALONG

Suffrage Representative Among Them.

When the Federation Special pulled out from the Grand Central Station yesterday afternoon it carried more than a hundred delegates to the General Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in San Francisco from June 25 to July 5. There were at least another hundred women, Weeks Elton Hoyt and Heary A. Ray. not to mention five or six men, some with flowers and bonbons, who were at the station to see the delegation off.

The delegates, with their friends, began to arrive about 10 o'clock and the entire party was admitted through the gates, where they formed groups and good-by.

Miss Mary Garrett Hay, president of
Miss Mary Garrett Hay, president of Miss dederation, said they would the State federation, said they would surely elect Mr. Philip Carpenter of Yorkers president of the Ceneral Federa-tion of Clubs. But a delegation of women

MADEROS ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. Hearst Give Dinner for Father of Mexican President.

Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst entertained at dinner last night at their home, 137 Riverside Drive, in honor of Francisco Madero, brother of the President of the Mexican republic. Jules Madero and Evaristo Madero, brothers of the President as well as Salvador Madero, brothers of the President as among the guests, as well as the following ladies and gentlemen: Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nixon.

Mrs. James O. Schring

There were also there mee in the party. They were John F. Yawger of New York, Howard C. Warren of Princeton, N. J., and J. W. Ford of Waterford, N. Y. Mrs. Ruth Litt was accompanied by her two small sons. They expect to go to Alaska. Entert.ainments have been arranged for the delegates at Indianapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City. At Sali Lake City they will be traced to an organ correct in the party. They were also there mee in the party. They were John F. Yawger of New York, Howard C. Warren of Princeton, N. J., and J. W. Ford of Waterford, N. Y. Mrs. Ruth Litt was accompanied by her two small sons. They expect to go to Alaska. City they will be traced to an organ correct in the delegates at Indianapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City. At Sali Lake City they will be traced to an organ correct in the delegates at Indianapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City. At Sali Lake City they will be traced to an organ correct in the Tabernacie, a trip about the city and a luncheon given by the Commercial Chib. At Ogden the delegates will be taken up Ogden Cabon and will have tea at the Hermitage.

The delegates will start back for New York of New York of Plays and Players.

The George Egerton translation of "The Paughter of Heaven," by Pierre Lord and Judith Gautier, which is to be seen at the Century Theorre this full when the Chinese play is to be acted for the first time on any singe and in the presence of at least one of its authors, is also to serve Sir Herbert Tree when he produces the big spectucle at His Majesty's Theatre, London. Sarch Bernhardt is to stage the drama in Paris, but not until after its American premier George Egerton is the nom de plume of Mrs. It. Egerton is the nom de plame of Mrs. It. Golding Bright, the English novellst, who are her spars as a dramatic last season with the adspitation of "The Whichwind" used by Mine, Simone

Wellington Cross and Lots Josephine, re-can'ty with Blanche Hing in "The Well Street Gri!" will make their vandeville debut next week at Reith's Union Square Theatre.

May Yoke is to appear at Hammerstein's

Sam Bernard, who sailed for Europe the Mauretenia on Tuesday, will be gone for only four weeks. He will cut his vacation short in order to return to this country and begin rehearsn's at once for his engagement in "Liebe Augustine," under the manage-ment of the Shuberts.

Grace Van Studdiford will begin a senson in vaudeville next week at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. She will sing song successes from several operas and will have the accompaniment of an augmented orches

Before sailing for Europe the late Henry Hefore sailing for Europe the late Henry B. Harris had trranged that the annual benefit for the Hebrew Infant Asylum should be given at the Arverne Pier Theatre, Arverne, L. I., on Sunday, July 21. Mrs. Henry P. Harris has undertaken to carry out her husband's wishes, and the benefit will he given under her direction. Mrs. Harris has already received the promise of the services of a large number of artists, who have agreed to appear for this charity.

Several officers of the German battleship Moltke occupied boxes last night at the per-formance of "A Winsome Widow" at the Moulin Rouge. After the performance they were entertained at supper by Flo. Ziegfeld, Jr., at the Hotel Plaza.

MARRIED.

ARLE-THORNE -On Wednesday, June 12. 1912, at St. Bartholomew's Church, by the Right Rev. David H. Greer, Bishop of New York, assisted by the Rev. Sydney N. Ussher Margaret Hayes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakleigh Thorne, to Edward H. Carle. HOYT-MYERS.—On Wednesday, June 12, 1912, at Hempstead, L. I., by the Rev. Henry Mottet, Jeanette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, to Colgate Hoyt, Jr.

VERS-MILNE.—On June 11, at the Presby-terian Church, White Plains, N. Y., Christella Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexand William Russell Silvers of Cran

DIED.

BRONSON.-At Summit, N. J., on June 12, 1912 requested not to send flowers. AMPBELL .- Margaret, on Wednesday, June 12.

in her 75th year. Funeral from her late residence, 2493 Valentine av., Fordham, on Friday, June 14, 9:30 A. M., thence to the Church of Our Lady of Mercy. Interment Calvary.

HOBSON. Bar Harbor, June 11, 1912, Eliza-beth Hobson, widow of Joseph Hobson, in her ightieth year.

Funer at Grace Church, Broadway and 10th st. 'riday, at 12 o'clock, Interment at nwood.

fEY .- On June 10, Joseph Moloney, aged Paneral from Stephen Merritt's new change DDD.—Elizabeth Rodd, aged 51.
Funeral THE FUNERAL CHURCH, 24! West

23d St. (FRANK E. CAMPBELL BUILDING), on Thursday, 11 o'clock. ANDMANN.-Sophia, wife of Ernest A. Sand

MANDMANN.—Soppila, wife of Ernest A. Sand-mann, entered into rest, at her home, 356 Carroll st., Brooklyn, N. V., June 12. Interment at Lutheran Cometery. Funeral on Saturday, June 15, at 920 o'clock. SMITH.—June 12, Eugene M. Smith, Funeral at Stephen Morritt Funeral Parlors, 304 West 126th st., Friday, 1 P. M.

UNDERTAKERS.

PHANE E. CAMPBELL, 241-248 W. 284 St. Chapele. Ambulato Service. Tel. 1824 Chapers tes of honor. Col. Goethals did not Bula Miner, Helen A. Holby and Sarah long speech. He said he remem-Streeter.

Mother and the Girl There, of Course—Who the Honor Men Are.

West Point, June 12—Ninety-five very sturdy, trim built and undeniably happy young Americans and one lithe costa Rican received this morning in the shade of the battle monument the diplemas which testified that they had completed successfully the four troublous years of study at the United States Military Academy. In the case of the ninety-five it means that many new second lieu Only good in classroom, good in discipline, but when it came to athletics they were marvels.

"The corps is to iose a class which has stood the brunt of athletic performance and supremacy," he said. "In casting up the account with our best friends and greatest rivals—the navy—for the last four years we find the Blue, Gray and Gold." That brought out a cheer.

"In football," the General continued, "we will miss Hyatt, Arnold, C. J. Brown, Cook, Dean, Littlejohn, Macdonald, Sibert, Walmsley and Wood. In baseball, White-side, Anderson, Cook, Gonser, Riley, Ulloa, Harrison, and not forgetting that queen of rooters, the dear mother of Harrison; we will all miss her and I will miss her parasol."

There was a vall at that Mrs. Herrison means that many new second lieu-selecting the comfortable shade of the old elms around the beautiful shaft rected to the memory of the West Pointers who died in the civil war. The pedestal of the monument became the commencement platform to-day, a khaki fly shut off the sun rays from the distinguished guests on the platform, and the graduation class sat just to the eastward. tack of them were seats for guests, and othe south were the chairs for the alumni. Around the enclosure stood or sat the great army of femininity which plays so

One nice thing about such affairs is the on as any of the old timers. first class came across the parade ound this morning without arms. They ad dropped the familiar guns before on was just as accurate as humar s could make it as they wheeled the left of the line of the cadet corps ame into the enclosure for their orator of the day and prinriest of the week, was with him fine to see how proud the army Goethals. Somehow or other seems to have thought of army duce he has been on the reserva-There have been lots of Brigadier-rank, but that fact does not inspire race Porter, Gen. John M. Wil- and Bradford G. Chynoweth, at large. ien, J. W. Barlow, Gen. S. M. Mans-Gen. C. E. L. B. Davis, Gen. John an, Gen. E. S. Godfrey, Gen. G. C. ce, Gen, George P. Borden, Col. Tillman, Gen. Francis V. Greene, S. W. Fountain and Gen. James President Taft would have been for a "speech." This is because Lieut. Edwards is a talker.

Hyatt, the pitcher and football star, got a loud yell of approval. Big Arnold, No. 60 in the class, received all an effective centre rush might desire, but Theodore Willis Martin, No. 95, who was the very end of the list, had thunderous acclamation and he took it without the contraction and he without the contraction and the without the contraction and the contraction and the contraction are supported by the contraction are supported by the contraction are supported by the contraction and the contraction are supported by the contraction are suppor the prayer by Chaplain Travers ty back in the early '70s. They d the public schools and became of them went from the tion and he took it without the quiver of an eyelash.

A benediction by Mgr. O'Keefe ended fork and then to the Academy The first boy, as the General led, was himself; the second was oethals. They remained friends Academy and in after life. And hands and the nodding of military Goethals's speech was a simple address of advice to the future dissumes. There was little waste hem that thirty-two years ago cupying. He was just as glad way from the restrictions of the he funcied that in his day that wanted to tell them was that loyal to himself; loyalty is of everything a soldier can lty." he said, "assumes that Yale divinity school, delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

Fitz Randolph, professor o art and dolph's chair.

dolph's chair.

The degree of A. B. was conferred upon 163 members of the senior class and the degree of A. M. on three graduates, President Mary E. Wooley presented does not want reasons, the said; it may fisten, but it wants do it. He gave the young men vice about their contact with the stop wight meet men who seemed been pledged to the general endowment. ey might meet men who seemed succeeded by standards which condemned at the school, but

THE GRADUATING CLASS AT WEST POINT, SHOWING ONE OF THE MEMBERS RETURNING TO HIS SEAT AFTER RECEIVING HIS DIPLOMA.

He had a few other little digs just to show tate it was not a class of angels and then he handed out the sheepskins.

and it was impossible because of the noise.

"Another reason item is that some of "Another reason for retaining this on the army and his country.
Thave a shrewd suspicion of course, a day not far distant some action at the class, got a big hand when he walked over the arcensward to the monument at to be taken by Congress which and the Colonel far along in mili indicate the sheepskins.

1512 if was not a class of angels and then he handed out the sheepskins.

Of course Howard 8, Bennion of Utah, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below" meant the Board of Estimate, and he thought it advisable to defer to those who have the item left in," said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below" meant the Board of Estimate, and he thought it advisable to defer to those who have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below asked to have the item left in, "said Mr. McGowan, who explained that the "some one below" meant the Board of Estimate and the hought it advisable to defer to those one below asked to have a start the board of Estimate and the hough

"I nope so."
"If you get $1,000,000 you'll be lucky. "We'd be thankful for that."
Mr. Martin objected to spending about $500,000 in enlarging the parental school at Flushing when truancy, he said, was decreasing at such a rate that there were strong hopes of eliminating it. It was voted to cut out the parental school item and then the rest of the report was adopted. These district superintendents were reelected, each at a salary of $5,000 a year; William L. Ettinger, James Lee, Edgar Dubs Shimer, John Griffin, M. D.; Charles W. Lyon, James J. McCabe and John W.

of teachers' license that was granted previous to 1903. The Corporation Counsel gave the board his opinion that the holders of these licenses should have the preference in being appointed to the graduating classes in 8A and 8B.

"There are about 5 countered." There was a warm debate over a form of an eyelash.

A benediction by Mgr. O'Keefe ended the exercises and the new graduates rushed across the parade grounds to get ready for the dinner to-night at the Hotel Astor in New York with a theatre party classes in 8A and 8B.

"There are about 3,000 teachers holding such licenses and if this matter goes through there will be no promotions for the next twenty years among the teachers appointed since 1903," Supt. Maxwell said. "This would demoralize 12,000 teachers."

"The opinion of the Corporation Counsel is good law for us," suggested Mr. McGowan.

"You are not obliged to fall.

"You are not obliged to follow the Corporation Counsel's opinion," rejoined Supt. Maxwell. "You are a part of the set up enough to appear in company. Then their trial will begin. There are 136 men in the new class but State administration It was decided to follow the Corporaxperiment two continuation high schools The schools are De boys will be received this summer. They will attend school from July 8 to August 30 from 9 o'clock in the morning to noon.

CARDINAL AT MARYMOUNT. Visits Noted School and Is Afterward the Guest of James Butler.

TARRYTOWN, June 12.—Cardinal Farley attended the closing exercises of Marymount School to-day and to-night was the guest of honor at a large dinner given by James Butler at his home in East View. The Cardinal arrived shortly after The exercises were held in the gymnasium at 2:30 o'clock. Cardinal Farley sat in the centre of the front row with the Mother Superior on his right and James Butler on his left. Mary-mount School was the gift of Mr. Butler in memory of his wife. The exercises consisted of an address of welcome, musical selections and dances. At the close Cardinal Farley thanked the school for the warm greeting. Medals were then researched by the Cardinal Cardinal Farley thanked the school for the warm greeting. for the warm greeting. Medals were then presented by the Cardinal to the following pupils: Anna Brannan, Marie Bates, Lois Best, Alice McNulty, Helen Cavanagh, Irene McNulty, Florence Hardart, Hope Barnett, Irene Cronin and Eileen Kelleser.

After the exercises the Cardinal sating the throne room and received the visitors. On leaving Marymount he wa driven to James Butler's estate, wher at 7 o'clock a dinner was given. Grandson for Daniel G. Reid.

in the throne room and received the vis

Daniel G. Reid, chairman of the board of the Rock Island, was happy yesterday in the birth of a grandson. John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, shared the grandfatherly joy. Mr. Reid's daughter and Mr. Topping's son are the parents.

THE RESERVE THE PERSON OF THE

arriage from its position and had to do and it was impossible to have recitations William B. Caperton: Capt. William L.

Robert Donaldson Bronson, 67 years old, died yesterday at his home at 114 Prospect street, Summit, N. J. He was the son of Dr. Oliver Bronson of Hudson, N. Y. For the past thirty years Mr. Bronson was chief leek in the Public Administrator's office in this city. He was born in Hudson, N. Y. in 1845 and was graduated from the College of the City of New York. After his graduation he went to work for the Mutual Life Insurance Company and later went into the Public Administrator's office, where he had remained ever since. Mr. Bronson was married in 1876. He leaves a widow and two daughters. Mrs. J. William Cromwell, Jr. of Summit and Miss Mary Bronson, who is a cleter in a convent at Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. John Mr. and Mrs. Fedwin S. Asperten.

Sciegnan.

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Miss Dorothy Morgan By the French liner La Savoie for Cherbourg:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardman Mrs. Consult William E. Shepherd, Mr. E. Larel, Consult William E. Shepherd, Mr. E. Lar

a sister in a convent at Philadelphia. Mr. Bronson was well known in Summit, where he had lived since 1887, and in New York. where he was a member of the Union Club

Harry George Burgess. BOSTON, June 12.—Harry George Burgess, the illustrator, is dead at his home in Waban after an illness of several months at age of 44. He was born in England and d the foundation of his artistic training the Academy of Design in New York, where he studied for three years. At the completion of his course there he came to Boston and began work as an illustrator. After a year or two of independent work he studied in Paris On his return he at once associated himself with the art department of the Youth's Companion, where he remained until his death. Mr. Burgess was a frequent contributor to the Illustrated London News and to the Cassell and Harper periodical.

MOUNT VERNON, June 12.—Howard Mai-colm Dow, one of the best known church organists in this country, died to-day at the home of his son, Arthur M. Dow of Bo ton avenue, Pelham Manor. He was in his seventy-sixth year. He was born in Bostor and was a church organist in that city during the greater part of his life. He wrote many pieces of sacred music. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and in 1889 he composed the "Masonic Orpheus," which is still in use by Masonic lodges all over the country. He is survived by two sons and one daughter.

nue. He was in his seventy-sixth year. De Witt was born in Walden, Orange county, and was in the stationery busines

Peter De Witt.

MOUNT VERNON, June 12 .- Peter De Wit

died after an operation at the home of his son, Frederick De Witt, 245 South Fifth in New York city before being appointed a clerk in the office of the Corporation Counsel, which position he held for twenty years. He served with the Seventh Regiment in the civil war. Mr. De Witt is survived by his wife and five sons. Alfred Nellson. Alfred Nellson, 67 years old, son of the late William Hude Nellson, who was at on time president of the New York Stock Ex

Ernest Southard, 39 years old, of Bald-in, L. I., died on Tuesday at the New York lospital. He was a member of the C. H. Southard Wrecking and Trucking Company and was noted as a yachtsman on the south shore of Long Island, where he was commo-dore of the South Shore Yacht Club. He leaves a widow and three children. In New York To-day. Woman's Peace Circle, meeting, Waldorf-

St. Paul's Church, West End avenue and

St. Paul's Church, West End avenue and Eighty-sixth street, reception to Bishop Luther B. Wilson, 8 P. M. West Side Y. M. C. A., lecture by Philip B. Bates on "The Pacific Northwest." New York Law School commencement exercises, Carnegic Hall, 8:30 P. M. Aeronaulical Society, meeting, 304 West Pifty-eighth aireet, 8:30 P. M. Fordham University, commencement exer-